Introduction

This Product Guide covers a range of information, including details of the account and general descriptive information for customers. It also covers information about the banker customer relationship between you and us.

Part A – Account features and benefits provides a summary for each account, detailing account features and ways to access the account.

This Product Guide is designed to help you:

- · Decide whether this account meets your needs
- · Understand how to access your account
- Compare this account with others you may be considering.

Ideally you should read this Product Guide, which includes terms and conditions relating to your account, before you select the account you wish to open. You should keep this Product Guide handy as you may find it useful as a quick, easy reference guide.

Please note the information contained in this Product Guide is general information only and does not take into account your individual objectives, financial situation or needs.

You and your adviser

When you open an account through your adviser, your adviser may transact on your account on your behalf. Therefore if you wish to withdraw funds, reinvest or change your investment in any way, you can do so through your adviser.

Where your adviser opens an account on your behalf and you do not sign an account application form, we will not accept a request by you to transact directly on the account unless your adviser provides us with authorisation, you sign an account application form and you meet identification requirements.

Custodian investors

Where the investment in the Adelaide Money Market Term Deposit Account is made through a master trust, wrap account or other investor directed portfolio-type service (a custodian), the account will be held by the custodian rather than the investor on whose behalf the investment is made (the custodian investor) and the custodian may exercise the rights of the account holder (including rights to operate on the account), subject to the terms of their arrangement with the custodian investor.

Because a custodian investor will not be the account holder, a custodian investor does not have rights under our complaints process or under the Financial Claims Scheme. Custodian investors may also be subject to different conditions from those outlined in this Product Guide (such as procedures for making investments and withdrawals, cooling off periods, cut-off times for transacting, timing for distributions, additional fees and costs and investor reporting).

Adelaide Bank is not responsible for the operation of any custodian through which a custodian investor invests. Custodian investors should direct enquiries and complaints to their custodian, not to Adelaide Bank. In addition to reading this Product Guide, custodian investors should read all documents that explains their relationship with their custodian.

Please refer to part 3.5 of this Product Guide for more information about depositing to and withdrawing from your account.

We will send you a Term Deposit Maturity Notification letter before your investment matures. It will contain the following information:

- · The current balance of your investment; and
- · Amount to be reinvested.

Important note: Interest rates may change prior to your maturity date. You should check the current interest rates with us on the maturity date.

You have a seven day grace period from the date your investment matures to change the details of your investment (for example, increase the amount of your investment or the length of the investment term). Your account will continue to be subject to the same terms and conditions.

Investment maturity

- Prior to or on the day of maturity you may contact us to provide instructions regarding your investment. At this time you may instruct us to roll your investment on the terms set out in the Term Deposit Maturity Notification letter, to reinvest your funds for a different term, to increase the amount of your investment, or you may advise us you wish to close your account or withdraw part or all of your funds.
- If no instructions are received by us prior to or on the day of maturity we will automatically roll your principal and interest into the same investment term (or the nearest equivalent term if the previous term is no longer available) at the current interest rate for that term. It is important to note that the interest rate applicable to the new investment may significantly differ from the interest rate applied in the previous investment, due to changes in interest rates over time.
- The details of your new investment, including the interest rate and new maturity date, will be confirmed by us on your statement.
- If the day your investment matures is not a banking day you will not be able to access your funds until the next banking day.

Early withdrawal

- If you wish to withdraw or transfer your funds after the seven days grace period, we may at our discretion not permit the withdrawal or transfer for up to 31 days (or the next maturity date if sooner), but we will permit withdrawal or transfer during this period in the case of proven hardship (as determined by us). Hardship applications by a custodian investor will not be accepted by us because a custodian investor is not the account holder. The 31 day period starts on the day you give us notice by making the request in writing to us. If we decide not to permit your withdrawal or transfer during this period, your funds will be paid on the banking day after the expiry of the period.
- If you require access to your investment prior to maturity, an early withdrawal interest rate reduction will apply.
- The interest rate reduction will be calculated as the amount being withdrawn multiplied by the difference between the fixed interest rate and the interest rate that would have been applicable if the actual term was chosen at the time of investment. This fee is charged on account closure or when interest is paid. It is to reimburse us to cover the costs incurred by us in sourcing replacement deposit funds.
- In the event your interest rate is reduced, we may deduct any interest rate reduction from the principal balance remaining as an adjustment of interest already paid.
- Your early withdrawal request will need to be in writing.

Payment

Payment of the principal and any interest will be made to the bank account you nominated in your application form.

Minimum balance

The minimum opening balance for this account must be maintained. If in the event the account falls below this minimum, your account may be closed.

General

Your account is not transferable.

2.9 Our relationship

Your agreement with us will govern our relationship. As well as the express written terms in your agreement, there may be implied terms relating to everyday banking matters. The type of banking service you request is also relevant. For example, it is a debtor and creditor relationship with a loan or a deposit account. For a deposit account, this means we owe you your deposit and for a loan account you owe us.

Your agreement will usually start when your account is opened, however it may be earlier - for example when we first become bound to provide banking services to you.

Your relationship with us may also automatically stop in some cases. For example, if you close your account, if you become bankrupt or insolvent, or if you die. If we wish to end our relationship, in most cases we will give you reasonable notice. However, sometimes this may not occur (such as where an overdraft must be immediately repaid).

2.10 Resolving Complaints

We consider Internal Dispute Resolution (IDR) to be an important and necessary first step in the complaint handling process as it gives us an opportunity to hear when we do not meet our customers' expectations and address them genuinely, efficiently and effectively.

2.11 Brokerage

We may pay brokerage to your adviser based on the deposit balance of your account and the percentage of brokerage charged. Brokerage is a type of commission, and is deducted from the total interest we pay on your account. Your adviser determines and instructs us on the amount of brokerage you will be charged. The amount of brokerage charged by your adviser directly affects the interest rate received by you on your account.

As an example:

We offer an 'all-up' (total) interest rate of 5.00% p.a. on the account to your adviser. If your adviser charges 0.15% p.a. brokerage the interest rate received by you will be 4.85% p.a. If your adviser charges 0.25% p.a. brokerage the interest rate received by you will be 4.75% p.a.

Please note: examples are used for illustrative purposes only.

Your adviser may give you further information about benefits received by them (such as brokerage) when providing you with financial product advice or arranging for your account to be opened.

Where prohibited by law, including the Corporations Amendment (Future of Financial Advice) Act 2012 (Cth), we will not pay any commissions, fees or soft dollar benefits to advisers and related parties.

Brokerage may also be payable to a custodian as described above.

2.12 Risk

All financial products carry risk and different products may carry different risks depending on the nature of that product. You should consider your level of risk tolerance prior to investing and should have regard to your own investment objectives, circumstances and needs, and consider the need for professional advice, including taxation and legal advice.

The most significant risk associated with this account is as follows:

Interest rate risk

Because the interest rate is fixed there is a risk that interest rates applying to alternative investments may increase during the term of your investment in which case you may forgo potential higher returns on your funds.

2.13 Financial Claims Scheme

The Financial Claims Scheme protects depositors through the provision of a guarantee on deposits (up to a cap) held in authorised deposit-taking institutions (ADI) in Australia and allows quick access to their deposits if an ADI becomes insolvent.

As such please note the following information:

- You may be entitled to a payment under the Financial Claims Scheme in the event of us becoming insolvent;
- Accessibility to the Financial Claims Scheme is subject to eligibility criteria; and
- Information about the Financial Claims Scheme can be found at www.fcs.gov.au

3. Part C - Using your account

3.1 How to open an account

An application must be made though your adviser or by a custodian.

When your adviser opens an account on your behalf, you will only be able to access this account through your adviser.

If you would like to operate your account along with or instead of your adviser, you will need to provide us with authorisation for this to occur, and you will need to meet identification requirements.

Your adviser will conduct the required identification process on our behalf.

An account may be opened in the name of an individual, company, partnership, trust, association, co-operative, a self managed superannuation fund or a custodian.

Eligible Investors

You must be 18 years or over to open an account. Investments are only available to persons receiving an up to date (electronic or otherwise) copy of this Product Guide within Australia. Applications from outside Australia will not be accepted. The individual(s) or entities in whose name in which the investment is made in and all signatories to the account must reside in Australia.

3.2 How to identify yourself

If you wish to operate your account opened by your adviser we will need to obtain proof of your identity, as required by law, including Know Your Customer requirements under anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing legislation. This will include information such as, for an individual, name, residential address and date of birth and for a business entity information such as details of directors and shareholders. Where the customer is a trust, details of the trustee and beneficiaries may be required. We may also require other information such as information about beneficial owner(s), and information about your activities and reason for opening an account in Australia.

3.3 Joint accounts

If you have a joint account with another person or persons, you will each be liable for any amount due to us on the account and any other obligation under your agreement, unless your agreement with us states otherwise.

Under the terms of this Product Guide you are liable both separately on your own and jointly with any one or more other persons named as account holders of your account. This includes your successors and assigns. This means we can ask all of you or any one of you for the whole of the amount owing.

In some cases (for example loan accounts) you may be able to limit your liability on a joint account. A request to limit your liability to us will only apply in relation to future advances and not to money already owing. You should direct any requests to limit your liability in writing to us. Requests are only effective upon written acceptance from us.

Joint liability for amounts owing to us may also be limited as a result of family law property proceedings, for example following a Family Court decision to transfer the mortgage and title on a jointly owned home.

Upon the death of one or more of you, we shall be entitled to treat the survivor(s) as having title to your account. However, we will normally treat all authorities for operating the joint account as cancelled once we know of your death (and certain conditions have been met) or of your bankruptcy. We must be notified as soon as practicable if one of you dies.

It will be up to you and the other joint account holders to say how many of you must sign in order to operate the account. This arrangement will be part of your agreement with us, and may be altered at the request of you and the other joint account holders. If we receive no other instructions we will assume 'any one of us to sign' is selected.

Regardless of any arrangement with us, any holder of a joint account can require us to operate the account only on the signature of all parties. This might be done if there is a dispute between the joint account holders.

Unless we agree otherwise the signatures of all of you are required:

- On any notice or request for withdrawal of monies
- · On receipt for monies paid
- To appoint or remove an operator on your account
- To end this agreement at your request.

If there is more than one of you, you authorise us to accept for the credit of your account any cheque payable to any one or more of you.

You agree that where you hold an account jointly with another person or persons, you appoint the other account holder(s) as your agent for the purposes of receiving a copy of this Product Guide, statements of account, transaction confirmations and any other information relating to the account that is required to be provided to each account holder. You can obtain copies of any of this information at any time by contacting us.

3.4 Giving someone access to your account

We may allow any person nominated by you who is aged 18 years or older to be an operator on your account. An operator is able to use your account in any way we allow, subject to any restrictions that we agree to. Each use of your account by an operator is subject to this agreement as if you had used the account.

Allowing someone else to operate your account enables that person to access any financial information about your account, including:

- · The balance of your account
- Any payments due on your account including the amount, due date and details of the payment
- Copies of documents issued by us such as statements
- · Details of any transaction on your account.

When you open an account through your adviser, your adviser will automatically be provided with limited access to operate your account.

When you allow an operator to use your account you are liable for any such use as if your account had been used by you. However, you will not be liable if the operator's rights to use your account were previously withdrawn. An operator's rights to use your account will be withdrawn from when you have notified us in writing when you want that to happen.

Appointing an authorised operator

Who you can appoint

You may appoint any of the following to be an authorised operator on your account:

- · A person aged 18 years or older
- A company
- · A partnership
- · Your financial adviser.

Level of authority

The types of functions your authorised operator(s) can perform on your investment will depend on the level of authority you grant them. You may opt for your authorised operator to have either 'limited' or 'full' access to your investment.

Your adviser

You can advise us of the level of authority of your adviser by completing section 15 of the application form. Please note if the application is signed on your behalf by your adviser they are automatically authorised as a Full Access Operator on your behalf.

If you open your investment through your adviser, they are unable to opt out of being a Limited Access Operator if they wish to be noted on your account.

You may cancel an authority to operate at any time. If you remove your adviser as an operator of your account, you will be required to manage your term deposit directly. The features and services applicable to you when directly managing your account differ to the features and services applicable to a customer using an authorised operator.

Authorised operators may also cancel their own authorised operator status at any time (subject to the rules relating to advisers outlined in the paragraph above).

Authorised operators will automatically have their status revoked, once we receive confirmation (to our satisfaction) that the authorised operator is subject to an insolvency event. If the authorised operator is an adviser and their relevant professional licence is suspended, revoked or cancelled, their authorised operator status may be revoked at our discretion without notice. Upon revocation of the authorised operator status, the account will either be transferred to an authorised operator of the same financial adviser firm or transferred to you to be operated as a direct customer.

How to appoint an Authorised Operator

If you wish to appoint an authorised operator on your account or if you would like your financial adviser or stockbroker to have Full Access Operator status, you should forward to Adelaide Bank your completed and signed Authorised Operator Form available from your financial adviser or by contacting us.

- The account will only generate interest from the day the funds are deposited (please allow minimum three days).
- If the debit day falls on a day that is not a banking day, we may direct your financial institution to debit your account on the following banking day. If you are unsure about which day your account has or will be debited you should ask your financial institution.

Lost deposits

In addition to other rights, we may recover the amount of any such cheque, payment order, bill of exchange or bank draft by debiting an account to which the amount of the cheque, payment order, bill of exchange or bank draft had been credited. If we do, we will notify you as soon as possible.

Withdrawals

Withdrawals without an interest rate reduction can only be made at maturity. When available, funds can be withdrawn by:

- Bank cheque
- · Electronic transfer to another account.

If you withdraw funds from your account prior to maturity, an interest rate reduction will apply. Please refer to Part A – Account features and benefits of this Product Guide for further details.

We may decline any transaction which will result in your account balance being less than the minimum opening balance.

Information about bank cheques

You must take care of all bank cheques and inform us promptly if any bank cheque is lost, stolen, forged or fraudulently altered.

Any request to stop payment of a bank cheque must be made in writing to us and you may be charged a fee.

You may only request to stop payment of a bank cheque in limited circumstances.

3.6 Interest rates

When deciding whether an account is the best account for you, it is important to not only know how the interest you earn is calculated, but also how often the interest is paid. Please refer to Part A – Account features and benefits of this Product Guide to find out when interest is paid on your account.

The current interest rates applicable to your account are available from your adviser.

Interest is calculated daily on the closing balance of your account. Unless indicated otherwise in Part A – Account features and benefits of this Product Guide, interest is paid on the last day of each statement period and when your account is closed.

Interest is calculated on the daily closing balance of your account using the following formula:

Daily closing balance X Daily percentage rate

The daily percentage rate is the annual percentage rate for that day divided by the number of calendar days in the year.

Fixed interest rates

The Adelaide Money Market Term Deposit Account operates on a fixed interest rate for the term of the investment.

3.7 Amounts which can be debited to your account

You agree that we may debit to your account without notifying you and you agree to pay us:

- Each drawing you or an operator, make or authorise on your account
- Fees and charges debited as described in this Product Guide
- Any other amount you must pay in connection with this agreement on the date it becomes due.

3.8 Minimum deposit balances

You must ensure that your account is maintained consistently with any minimum balances described in Part A – Account features and benefits of this Product Guide, and if you do not:

 We will not pay interest on a deposit balance less than that minimum.

The minimum opening balance for this account must be maintained. If in the event the account falls below this minimum, your account may be closed.

3.9 Unused accounts

If your account does not meet the minimum operating requirements we have the authority to close your account. For the minimum requirements, please refer to Part A – Account features and benefits of this Product Guide.

3.10 How accounts may be closed or suspended

You or any other authorised person may close, or suspend access to, your account at any time through your adviser, or if you have direct access to your account you can instruct us. Upon your request, another financial institution may close your account on your behalf by mail.

We may exercise our discretion to close, or suspend access to, your account due to unsatisfactory conduct or for any other reason (e.g. if we reasonably consider it necessary to prevent fraud or other losses to you or us). If we close your account, we will notify you as soon as possible.

If your account has a deposit balance we will pay the deposit balance to you or as you direct.

If our relationship with you ends, your liabilities (including the obligations to make any payment and your liability for any interest charges and fees and charges) continue even if we pay you any deposit balance in your account. If your account is in credit when closed, where applicable, any interest will be credited to the balance. If any accrued fees or charges, or government charges are due on the account up to the closing day, these may be deducted from the account balance. Monthly fees may still apply where the account is closed part way through the month. If there are uncleared funds in the account we will not make these funds available to you until the funds are cleared.

If your account has a debit balance on closing you must pay us the balance owing plus any accrued interest charges, other fees or charges and any government charges applicable to the day of closing.

4. Part D – General matters

4.1 Insolvency and bankruptcy

If you are a body corporate and you become insolvent, in administration, or liquidation occurs, or steps are taken to make you so, then you must immediately notify us of this fact.

If you are an individual and you are declared bankrupt or steps are taken to make you so, then you must immediately notify us of this fact.

If you become bankrupt, or an administrator is appointed, or you are in liquidation or otherwise subject to an insolvency event, we will stop your account, thus denying you access to your money, and we will act on instructions from your administrator or similar official.

If you have a partnership account or a joint account and one of the account holders or partners is subject to an insolvency event, once we receive notification of the insolvency event, we will stop the account and deny all the account holders access to the account and we will act on instructions from your administrator or similar office the person or entity employed to oversee the insolvency event.

4.2 Default

You will be in default if you breach any term of this agreement or any other agreement you have with us, or if any information you give us in connection with this agreement is, in our opinion, false or misleading.

You must notify us immediately if you become aware that you are in default under this agreement.

What can happen then?

If you are in default, we may give you a notice stating that you are in default.

If you do not correct the default within any period given in the notice then, at the end of that period and without further notice to you, the total amount owing becomes immediately due for payment (to the extent it is not already due for payment). We may then sue you for that amount.

In limited circumstances set down by law (such as if we are unable to locate you), we need not give the notice or wait until the end of any period given in a notice. In such a case, the total amount owing becomes immediately due for payment without notice and we may then immediately sue you for that amount.

If you are in default, we may use any money you have in this account, or in another account with us towards repaying the total amount owing (this is known as a contractual right to 'combine accounts'). We may combine accounts without giving you any notice but we will advise you afterwards. This provision does not affect any rights we have to combine accounts which arise by operation of law.

Your obligation to pay on time is not cancelled by these provisions. Further information on combining accounts is in the following paragraphs.

4.3 Combining accounts and set-off

We can combine the balances of two or more of your accounts. For example, if your cheque account is overdrawn we might use money in your savings account to reduce the amount you owe on your cheque account.

When you have an existing account with us and you open a new account covered by this Product Guide, the new account can be combined with your existing account.

However, this would not happen where, for example:

- We know the accounts are not held by you in the same capacity (for example where you have a personal account and also an account as trustee for your child)
- Your debt to us arises from some business other than banking
- We have specifically agreed to keep your accounts separate or your dealings with us suggest such an agreement.

When combining accounts we will comply with any applicable requirements of the Code of Operation for Department of Human Services and Department of Veteran's Affairs Direct Credit Payments.

We will not exercise our right to combine your accounts in connection with amounts you owe in respect of any credit facility which you hold with us that is regulated by the National Credit Code;

- While we are actively considering your financial situation as a result of your hardship application (we may ask you, as a condition of not exercising our right to combine your accounts, to agree to retain funds in an account until our decision on your hardship application has been made); or
- While you are complying with an agreed arrangement with us resulting from our consideration of your hardship application.

We will promptly tell you if we have combined any of your accounts, but we are not liable to do so beforehand. You cannot presume an overdrawn account will be combined by us with an account which is in credit (for example in order to cover cheques you have drawn on the overdrawn account) unless we have agreed to this.

Subject to any statutory right of set-off which we cannot exclude by agreement, you must pay us all amounts due under this agreement in full without setting off amounts you believe we owe you and without counterclaiming amounts from us. We may set off any amounts we owe you against money you owe us.

4.4 Taxation and Social Security

All income that you receive in relation to your account will be assessable income for taxation purposes unless you are exempt from income tax. You may wish to seek independent taxation advice before choosing to open our account.

Tax File Number (TFN) notification

You are not obliged to provide us with your TFN, however if you do not supply us with your TFN or claim a valid exemption for each account holder we will be required to deduct tax from interest payments made to you. Tax will be deducted at the highest marginal rate plus the Medicare Levy in accordance with Australian Taxation Office requirements.

Australian companies and certain other business entities may supply an ABN instead of a TFN.

Please note if the correct TFN is not provided at the opening of this account and withholding tax is deducted, then we cannot refund the tax deducted and you are required to contact the Australian Taxation Office to obtain any refund.

Social Security

Bank accounts are subject to both income and assets tests, and therefore a deposit with us may affect your entitlement to a social security benefit. We recommend that you seek independent advice from a financial adviser or Centrelink before choosing to make a deposit.

4.5 Incapacity

If we are satisfied that:

- You have become of unsound mind or incapable of managing your affairs through age or infirmity or any other reason; and
- No committee, receiver or guardian has been appointed although the contrary may be the fact,

We may permit a withdrawal by any person who appears, to our satisfaction, to have the care or custody of you or the management of your affairs of the whole or any portion of the deposit balance of your account.

Such withdrawal shall be taken to be a valid act by you and the receipt of funds by such person shall be binding upon you. We shall not be liable to any person including you in respect of any such withdrawal.

4.6 Equitable interests

Except as required by court order or this agreement and although our records may indicate that money deposited with us is held on trust, we may not recognise any beneficial interest in that money.

4.7 Adjustments

We may subsequently adjust debits and credits to your account so as to accurately reflect the legal obligations of you and us (for example, because of an error or a dishonour). If we do this we may make consequential adjustments (including to interest charges).

4.8 End of day

A day of the week ends for any purpose under this agreement at 5.00pm Central Standard Time (CST).

4.9 Variations and waivers

A provision of this agreement, or a right created under it, may not be waived except in writing signed by the party or parties to be bound.

We may agree to change this agreement or defer or waive any of these terms and conditions without creating a new agreement.

4.10 Time

A reference to a time in this Product Guide is a reference to Central Standard Time (CST).

4.11 How we may exercise our rights

Acting reasonably at all times, we may exercise a right or remedy or give or refuse our consent in any way we consider appropriate including by imposing reasonable conditions. If we do not exercise a right or remedy fully or at a given time, we can still exercise it later. Our rights and remedies under this agreement are in addition to other rights and remedies provided by law independently of it or by any other agreement. Our rights and remedies under this agreement may be exercised by any of our employees or any other person we authorise.

To the full extent permitted by law, we are not liable for loss (including consequential loss) caused by the exercise or attempted exercise of, failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, a right or remedy to the extent it was not caused by the negligence, fraud or wilful misconduct of us, our employees or agents or a receiver approved by us.

4.12 Our certificates

We may give you a certificate about a matter or about an amount payable in connection with this agreement. The certificate is sufficient evidence of the matter or amount, unless it is proved to be incorrect.

4.13 Assignment

We may assign our rights under this agreement. You agree that we may disclose any information or documents we consider desirable to help us exercise this right. Your rights are personal to you and may not be assigned without our written consent.

4.14 Inconsistent legislation

Where legislation applies to this agreement then if that legislation would otherwise make a provision of this agreement illegal, void or unenforceable, or a provision of this agreement would otherwise contravene a requirement of that legislation, or impose an obligation or liability that is prohibited by legislation, then this agreement is to be read as if that provision were varied to the extent necessary to comply with that legislation or, if necessary, omitted.

To the extent allowed by law and subject to the paragraph above, this agreement prevails to the extent it is not inconsistent with any relevant law.

4.15 Applicable law

This agreement is governed by the law in force in Victoria. You and we submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that place.

5. Part E – Fees and charges

5.1 Fees and charges payable

You agree to pay us:

- All fees and charges as described in this Product Guide plus any new fees and charges we impose under the terms of this Product Guide
- · Government charges
- Any expenses we incur in enforcing this agreement.

You authorise us to debit any of these amounts to your account. We may do so on or after the date we pay them or the date they become due or payable by you or us (whichever is earlier). We can at any time choose not to collect a fee or charge from you. This does not prejudice our right to collect the fee or charge in the future.

The amount or frequency or time of payment of a fee or charge may change or a new fee or charge may be imposed under the terms of this Product Guide. Refer to part 2.4 of this Product Guide for further details on how we may change the fees and charges that apply to your account.

The fees and charges in this Product Guide are debited to your account, at the frequency stated in the description of the fee and charge. If no frequency is stated then the fees and/or charges will be debited to your account after the event or your request has occurred.
